

There are no stations in Dallas, TX that play current rock that are not owned by Clear Channel. I think this is ridiculous. If you want to hear new rock or alternative, you hear only what CC wants you to hear. There is NO competition - they have a complete monopoly in Dallas. Please end this.